

UC SANTA CRUZ

Transfer Admission Guarantee Program (UCSC TAG)

Community college is a great place to begin a University of California education. UC Santa Cruz is proud of its strong relationship with California community colleges. Together we have developed a program to help students with the transfer process.

UC Santa Cruz's TAG (Transfer Admission Guarantee) Program is designed for California community college transfer students at the junior level. Prior to transfer, students must have completed at least 30 of the required semester units (45 of 90 quarter units) at one or more of California's community colleges.

To apply for the UCSC TAG Program, students planning to transfer must:

- Have completed a minimum of 30 UC-transferable semester units (45 quarter units) of course work at the time of application
- Have fewer than 20 semester units (30 quarter units) completed at a four-year institution
- Have at least a 3.00 GPA
- Be enrolled at a participating California community college.

The benefits of participating in UCSC TAG include early review of academic records, notification that admission to UCSC is guaranteed (subject to the conditions of the program), opportunities for advising about major preparation and general education and/or Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum (IGETC) requirements, informational mailings, and invitations to events.

With the help of their community college advisors, UCSC TAG students complete an agreement listing courses they will take to fulfill university requirements. All community colleges have been invited to participate in the UCSC TAG Program. Interested students should contact their community college transfer center or counseling office for information about application procedures. UCSC TAG offers guaranteed admission for the fall quarter only, and the filing period is August 1-October 15 of the previous year.
