Subject: Update from UCSC: October 2009 Events

Dear Colleague:

Greetings! We hope your fall academic season has started well. The Office of Admissions at UC Santa Cruz wants to make sure you're aware of the following important dates for October.

Thursday, October 1
UC Application Opens - Expected opening date for students to access the online application for fall 2010. Although students will not be able to submit their application until the filing period of November 1-30, we encourage them to get an early start, begin entering and saving their information, and begin crafting their Personal Statement.

Thursday, October 1, 9:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m.
UC Day - UC Day is an innovative virtual college fair for the UC campuses, including UCSC. The free event, hosted on the web by CollegeWeekLive, is a chance for you, your students, and their families to gather information about UC campuses, connect with UC staff and students, and have your questions answered through live online discussions. We are excited about UC Day because it has the potential to provide a college fair experience for students who do not have the time or the funds to attend traditional college fairs.

More information and registration. Check back on this site for more information as it becomes available.

Saturdays, October 10 and 17
UCSC Preview Days - UCSC will host Preview Days on campus for prospective students and families. Preview Days provide an opportunity to learn about UCSC and the unique college system and to tour the campus. Three sessions will be offered per day, providing a comprehensive overview of the UC Santa Cruz experience, including academics, campus life and the colleges, and the application and selection process. Each session will be followed by a walking tour of the academic core of campus led by Admissions' trained student tour guides.

The session on October 17 at 12 noon will focus specifically on transfer students.

Thank you again for your interest in UC Santa Cruz, and we hope to see you soon -- either in person or online!

Best wishes,

UC Santa Cruz
