A BREAKTHROUGH IN LIFE SCIENCES

Harry Noller, professor emeritus of molecular, cell, and developmental biology, was the winner of the prestigious 2017 Breakthrough Prize in Life Sciences, which carries a prize of $3 million. Professor Noller was recognized for his discoveries about the ribosome, the tiny structure of the cell that he calls “the mothership of life.”

“Every day I spend here at UCSC is a cherished memory. But the international orientation days have a special place. It helped us settle in so well. The orientation leaders were really nice and helpful and we also got to make a lot of new friends. It was a great start to college!”

Tianyi Zhang
MAJOR: Mathematics
HOMETOWN: Shanghai, China
HIGH SCHOOL: Shanghai Normal University Affiliated Middle School
“I love how students, staff members, and professors are always so nice and helpful. There is always somewhere that I can turn to whenever I have questions. The reason why I chose to study abroad is that I would like to enhance my ability, and I deeply feel that UCSC has provided me lots of opportunities.”

Wenxue Zheng
MAJOR: Business Management Economics, Mathematics
HOMETOWN: Fuzhou, China
HIGH SCHOOL: Fuzhou No. 3 High School
“Before coming here, I was a quiet and shy girl who believed that the only thing I needed to do in university was study. But when I met so many cool people at UCSC and got involved in some clubs and organizations, my life became much more colorful, and I am becoming closer to our society. I am becoming a better me.”

Qualifying for the University of California - Frosh from Outside the U.S.

The admission and selection process for freshmen to UC Santa Cruz reflects the academic rigor and preparation needed for admission to a major research institution.

Minimum Qualifications for the University of California

UC has slightly different admission requirements for international students. For freshman admission, you must:

1. Complete 15 yearlong academic courses with a 3.4 GPA:
   - 2 years of history/social science (in place of U.S. History, history of your country)
   - 4 years of composition and literature in language in which you are instructed
   - 3 years of math including geometry and advanced algebra
   - 2 years of laboratory science (1 biological/1 physical)
   - 2 years of a second language
   - 1 yearlong course of visual and performing arts
   - 1 additional course from any subject areas above

2. Meet other requirements specific to your country
3. Complete the ACT Plus Writing examination or the SAT with Essay examination no later than December of your senior year. (SAT exams taken prior to March 2016 will be accepted.)

In addition, students with very high test scores may qualify by their examination scores alone. You can find more detailed information by visiting admission.universityofcalifornia.edu/freshman and admissions.ucsc.edu/apply/freshman.html.

Selection by UC Santa Cruz

As a selective campus, UC Santa Cruz is unable to offer admission to all UC-qualified applicants. UCSC offers admission to freshman applicants according to the selection policy described on admissions.ucsc.edu/applied/freshman.html. Professionally-trained Admissions readers conduct a comprehensive review of your academic and personal achievements. The 14 factors we consider are:

- Grade-Point Average (GPA)
- Test Scores
- Courses Completed/Planned
- Honors Courses
- Eligibility in the Local Context
- Quality of Senior-Year Program of Study
- Educational Opportunities in California High Schools
- Performance in Academic Subject Areas
- Achievements in Special Projects
- Improvement in Academic Performance
- Special Talents, Achievements, and Awards
- Participation in Educational Preparation Programs
- Academic Accomplishment within Life Experiences
- Geographic Location
- Computer Science

Students interested in computer science must select the major as their first choice on the UC Application. Applicants are encouraged to have a solid background in advanced high school mathematics. A student not selected for computer science may be reviewed for admission to an alternate major if one was selected.

English Proficiency Requirement

If you attend a school in a country where English is not the native language, or if English is not the language of instruction at your school, you will need to show proficiency in English. Minimum IELTS score: 6.5; minimum TOEFL scores: 80 for Internet-based and 550 for paper-based. You can also satisfy the requirement through the SAT/ACT/IB Examinations. If you come from a bilingual school, you must also meet this requirement. admissions.ucsc.edu/applied/international-students/english-proficiency.html
