UC Santa Cruz has a Transfer Admission Guarantee (TAG) with all California community colleges. A UCSC TAG is a written agreement guaranteeing fall admission to California community college students who meet specific criteria.

To be considered for TAG, you must meet the following criteria:

- Be enrolled at a California community college
- Complete 30 or more UC-transferable semester/45 quarter units at the time the TAG is submitted
- Have a UC GPA of 3.0 or higher
- Complete 60 UC-transferable semester (90 quarter) units by the end of the spring 2017 term
- Meet all criteria indicated on the UCSC TAG web site
